

New York Botanical Gardens & The Cloisters

June 2, 2012

The Botanical gardens are--“A New York Masterpiece”—The New York Times See spectacular seasonal exhibitions inside a landmark glasshouse that also features a tropical rain forest and cactus-filled desert with plants than can be seen nowhere else in New York.

Explore 50-diverse gardens and plant collections across 250 acres of year-round beauty throughout the National Historic Landmark landscape, including 30,000 magnificent trees.

Enjoy exciting hands-on activities for the entire family in two gardens designed especially for children that connect plants and people.

Discover the 50-acre Native Forest, Rock Garden, Home Gardening Center and so much more during daily tours and programs.

The Cloisters, the branch of The Metropolitan Museum of Art is devoted to the art and architecture of medieval Europe.

Tour Highlights

RT motorcoach transportation

Admission to the NYC Botanical Gardens

The Tram is not just a great way to get around the Garden’s 250 acres—It is also a narrated tour that offers an overview of the Garden, its history and its programs. Hop off and explore at any of the four stops.

Visit The Cloisters

The Cloisters is the medieval outpost of the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Overlooking the Hudson River, it is a deeply relaxing and spiritual place

Leisure time for some shopping on Arthur Avenue

This neighborhood dates back to a time when thousands of immigrants came through Ellis Island. Nearly 100-years later, the passion for good food continues.

Tour Director

Cost Per Person	$81
-------------------------------	--------------------

For Information & Reservations
SILVER MILL TOURS

Box 2325 Meriden, CT 06450
203-379-0711
Donna Calvi-Sullivan
Donna@SilverMillTours.com